SUFFERING with the rheumatism, shrivelled limbs, or contracted cords, which renders him helpless and unable to provide for his family? Perhaps he may be incredulous and unwilling to try any remedy; but we can assure you that a great remedy and an effectual cure, to wit, the Indian Vegetable Elixir and Liniment. There can be no mistake as to the effects of these articles. The Elixir being taken internally operates directly upon the whole nervous system, and finds its way to the seat of the disease, while the Liniment being applied outwardly, removes all pain. This course will cure any case of Rheumatism. Let the afflicted send forthwith and procure these articles of the Agents.

TO THE BALD-HEADED,

AND all who would have a fine flowing head of hair. Never till lately did we believe that there was any thing that would restore hair on bald heads; but the proof that we have seen that OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA, from Comstock & Ross, 52 Cornhill, will do it, is incontestible. We have seen a friend, who is seventy years of age, and was for twenty years perfectly bald, who has had his hair restored with this balm, and numerous instances of a similar kind have lately come to our notice, which induces us to recommend it to all who are losing their hair. For our part, we would not be without this balm on any account,

CURE FOR PIMPLES ON THE FACE.

THESE complaints are among the most painful and dreadful to which human nature is subject. Comstock & Co's Extract of Sarsaparilla, in all scrofula diseases, cutaneous complaints, ulcers, mercury in the blood, pains and swellings of the bones, and diseases of the liver is a most excellent medicine. It first operates upon the blood, removing all the diseased particles it contains, and other parts of the system. It is concentrated extract, containing the very essence of the root, and prepared in the most scientific manner. Those who have been for a great length of time suffering under any of the diseases named, will find this Sarsaparilla of great benefit. As a general Spring Medicine to purify the blood, and give the vital fluids their natural circulation, to expel from the bowels their morbid secretions, and to change the general habit of the system, in short, to prepare the whole physical system for the enervating heats of summer, there is no preparation so efficient as Comstock's Sarsaparilla. Price 50 cents per bottle, or $4 per doz. Warranted equal to any sold at $1 per bottle.

STARTLING FACTS.

HUNDREDS of children and adults are lost yearly with worms, when some other cause has been supposed to be the true one.

It is admitted by all doctors that scarce a man, woman or child exists but what are sooner or later troubled with worms, and in hundreds of cases, sad to relate, a supposed fever, scarlatina, cold, or some other ailing carries off the flowers of the human family while in truth they die of Worms! and these could have been eradicated in a day by the use of a bottle of KOLMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, at the cost of a quarter of a dollar!

VEGETABLE BILIOUS BITTERS.

THESE Bitters are particularly serviceable when used alone in all cases of obstructions in the stomach and bowels, in chronic affections of the liver, and all other derangements and diseases proceeding from a diseased state of that organ, such as loss of appetite, foulness of the stomach, costiveness, dizziness and headache, Jaundice, Asthma, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Indigestion, Dispepsia, Faintness and sinking in the stomach, eruptions on the face and neck, and are an excellent purifier of the Blood. When these Bitters are taken in connection with the Vegetable Pills and Anti acid preparation will remove the most inveterate chronic diseases, even in cases where mercury has been unsuccessfully administered.

VEGETABLE BILIOUS PILLS

The reputation of these Pills stands unrivalled for the cure of nervous or Bilious headache, costiveness, indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders of the stomach; they are so compounded as to be slow in their operation, but after they have thoroughly operated upon the stomach and bowels, one or two pills is sufficient to purge the system, and in their operation they not only purge and cleanse the stomach and bowels from every impurity; but strengthen and give new life and vigor to the digestive organs, &c.

ANTI-ACID AND CARMINATIVE PREPARATION.

This medicine has been successfully used for sourness and wind in the stomach, and is a valuable specific in all cases of nervous irritability and hysteria, hypocondria, asthma, palsy and appoplexy, &c.

COUGH MIXTURE.

The reputation of this mixture stands unrivalled for the cure of all coughs proceeding from colds, asthma, chronic, catarrh, influenza and inflamation of the lungs or plurea, and chronic affections of the liver which frequently produce, consumption. It is decidedly the best medicine ever discovered for the cure of the hooping-cough.

COMPOUND STRENGTHENING PLASTER.

All who have used this plaster have found it to be a sure remedy for pain or weakness in the stomach, back, side, chest, loins, muscles, joints, &c, and for lung and liver complaints, coughs, colds, asthma, rheumatism, etc.

HEMORRHOIDAL, OR PILE POWDER.

This medicine may be relied upon to give immediate relief, and its use persevered in, will effect a certain cure of this truly painful and troublesome disease. This specific has been used by the proprietor in his practice for more than fourteen years, and he has never known an instance where it has failed to effect a cure. Try it.

Ointment for the cure of the Itch and all other cutaneous ERUPTIONS.

This ointment is a safe and efficacious remedy for the cure of the Itch and all cutaneous eruptions, and for a scald head, one of the worst of humors.

It is a sure remedy for sores and humors upon the face with which children are afflicted, curing without leaving a scar, observing in all cases to take according to accompanying directions, the anti-eruptive or cooling powder.

ANTI-ERUPTIVE OR COOLING POWDER.

A sure remedy for inflamations of the blood or other fluids from which proceeds the St. Antony's Fire, Salt Rheum, and other eruptions of the skin.

VOLATILE AROMATIC SNUFF,

FOR HEADACHE AND CATARRH.

COMPOSED PRINCIPALLY OF ROOTS AND AROMATIC HERBS.

FEW or none of the Snuffs in ordinary use, unite those advantages as an elegant sternutatory which Tobacco combined with other ingredients, is capable of producing. The common Scotch Snuff is not only destitute of fine flavor, but is universally allowed to be injurious to the head and stomach, and sooner or later affects the transparency and color of the skin. The course black Snuff instead of clearing and stimulating the olfactory nerves, serves but to obstruct and deaden them; and in process of time by stopping the passages has an evident effect upon the speech.

The Volatile Aromatic Snuff will, by experience, be found not liable to these objections—its flavor is fragrant and delightful, the effect pleasing and salutary; it sensibly stimulates the spirits, and removes drowsiness. By repeated experiments it is known to be of essential service to those who are troubled with long, dull, nervous headaches.

In cases of Catarrh, or what is commonly called a cold in the head, a pinch or two taken at night on going to bed, will effectually remove all obstructions.

All those troubled with hypocondria, or vapors, will find in this preparation a complete antidote. During the tedious confinement in a crowded house, or a warm atmosphere, after a fatiguing walk or a long ride, a pinch or two of this Snuff will by its grateful and enlivening qualities, richly repay the purchaser the trouble of constantly having it in his pocket.

From its grant and anti-putrescent qualities, no composition is better qualified to resist contagion, the use of it is therefore indispensable for all those who watch with or visit the sick.

All sedentary and studious persons of either sex, will find its occasional use a cheap and cheering relief from that lassitude which invariably accompanies a long sitting or much reading.

[Certificate from Dr. Benjamin Waterhouse, Member of the Medical Society in London, of the Medical School in France, and late professor of the Theory and Practice of Physic in Harvard University in Cambridge, accompanies each bottle.

The certificate concludes with these words—"I have frequently used your composition myself, and recommended it to others."

This certificate was given more than thirty years ago, during which period it has been and is still in extensive use in nearly every State in the Union, and with the greatest approbation. ☞Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Also WHITWELL'S ORIGINAL OPODELDOC.

For Bruises, Sprains, Cramp, Numbness, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness of the Neck or Limbs, Stings of Insects, Vegetable Poisons, Chilblains, etc.

This well known article has stood the test of twenty years and is still sought for, in every State in the Union, and so high is its reputation that city and country have been flooded with the vilest imitations of it, not worth the bottles which contain it. Be not imposed upon, have WHITWELL'S OPODELDOC or none, unless you wish to prove the truth of the Hudibrastic remark,

"That the pleasure is as great,
In being cheated as to cheat."

N. B. A certificate of approbation from Dr. Sam'l L. Mitchell, M. D. L. L. D. late Professor of Medicine in the New York College of Physicians, accompanies each bottle. Price 25 cents.

LORAINE'S PILLS:

OR VALUABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE, CURATIVE, OF THE French College of Health, in Paris.

THESE Pills are now acknowledged by thousands, who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Banner from all others. This Extraordinary Medicine has actually done WONDERS within one year past all over the inhabited world where it has been introduced. They cause no pain, or uneasiness, of any kind in their operation, and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the readers is respectfully called to the following important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine,—still greater, and more remarkable cures daily happen.

SWELLING OF THE BODY FROM HEAD TO FOOT, CURED!!

BOSTON, (Mass.) March 10, 1844.

SIR—About a year since I was taken severely ill, with a swelling of the body from head to foot, so that I was entirely helpless. The doctor advised me to go to the Hospital; for he said he did not understand my case. The persuasion of friends induced me to try Dr. Lorain's Vegetable Pills, which in a few days, produced a great change in my system, by increasing the natural discharges, causing an appetite, relieving the pain, removing the swelling, and giving me strength, and a perfect cure.

MARY JANE FRANCES.

A SEVERE PAIN IN BOTH SIDES, CURED!

LOWELL, (Mass) April 20, 1844.

Sir—For the last few months I have been afflicted with a severe pain in both sides, at times so hard that I could scarcely get my breath. * * * It is a pleasure to feel well—but a much greater one to say that I was cured immediately upon taking 1 dose of Dr. Loraine's Pills. J. BROOKS

A HACKING COUGH CONSTANTLY ANNOYED ME!

BOSTON, (Mass) June 1, 1844.

Sir:—In February last, I took a sudden cold, after which, a hacking cough constantly annoyed me, and this, combined with my other maladies, rendered me truly miserable, as every body told me that I was in a consumption. Since I have taken Loraine's Pills, and now every body tells me that I am well;—I feel as well as ever I did.

IMPROVED PATENT Lever Railway Pres.

THIS Press excels all others now in use for Pressing Hay, Cotton, Hemp, Wool, Hops, Rags, &c &c. and will be warranted to perform well and do double the work that any other press can with the same number of hands, with less than half the draught; a small boy can attend the horse, and the running back of the follower with perfect ease. The time required in running up the follower is fifteen seconds. At ordinary all day work, seven or eight bales can be pressed per hour.—Bales of hay can be pressed, weighing over 400 lbs., measuring two feet square and four feet long.—Bales of Cotton can be made compact enough without compressing.

The construction of this press is such that it does not require a building expressly for it, as it may be placed in any barn or shed, and the horse may move in any direction, or at any distance from it; and when the bale is ready for delivery, it is discharged instantly, and the follower gradually recedes as the Hay is placed in the box.

The construction is so simple that any man can make a Press, or keep it in order.

The travel for a horse, in running up a bale, is fifty feet, while in a screw press the travel is one mile and a half, in running the screw up and down.

"The Lever Railway, Hay and Cotton Press, offered by Wm. S. Jack, of Catskill, New York, is a machine combining great power, convenience of operation, and constructed on true philosophical principles, and is a great desideratum to the river counties, and all places not contiguous to market, and also to cotton and hop growers; and the Committee think they do not exaggerate when they say it is, in their opinion, the perfection of machinery for that purpose. The Committee, therefore, award to Mr Jack a premium of $5."

There are several of this new style of Presses now in use near Portland, and a large number building in different parts of the State. The cost of the Press, with the right to use it, can be purchased at less than half the cost of any other press now in use.

For rights for a single Press, or Towns, Counties, and States, application should be made to the subscriber. JOHN COX, Portland, Me.

THE AFFLICTED IN DANGER! SALUTARY CAUTION, READ! READ!!

THE well established and well earned reputation of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, as a Sovereign antidote, and cure in cases of Fevers, Head Aches, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Colic, Female Complaints, &c. &c. has excited the cupidity and envy of the proprietors of other medicines, and since their admirable qualities cannot be impugned, has arrayed against them the antagonist efforts of men who seek to pass off other medicines by the reputation of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

Beware of all attempts to palm off any (so called) specifics by means of specious sounding and deceptive titles. "SUGAR COATED PILLS" may be pleasant to the palate, but it requires something more than an agreeable exterior to combat with disease. We shall not attempt to analyse the composition of the "Sugar Coated or pretended Improved Indian Vegetable Pills," which have been thrown into the market and advertised extensively in the country paper—we have no desire to do so—nor is it necessary. It is, however, our duty to assure the public emphatically, that they are not an improvement on WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills, and that, whoever purchases them under this supposition is wofully deceived. This caution is positively necessary, since the title (nearly) the qualities set forth, the combination of ingredients, &c. are all those which formed the distinctive and original character of the true medicine.

Remember, buy none but "WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills," which are protected by a patent. These have attained an almost incredible sale and circulation; owing altogether to their own intrinsic merits. The public will pass its own judgment upon any attempt to snatch the Laurel from the brow of the inventor of these medicines where it has been placed by grateful thousands who owe their continuance of the enjoyment of the blessings of health to his happy and benevolent agency.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills

have performed wonders when used in cases of Intermittent, Remittent, Nervous, Inflammatory and Putrid Fevers, Measles, Small Pox and Erysipelas; Inflammations, of the Brain, throat, stomach, lungs, liver intestines, kidneys and bladder; pains in the stomach, back and side; consumption, dropsy of the head, of the chest, of the abdomen and of the limbs, scrofular, scurvy and syphilis; cancer, gravel, loss of appetite; sick headache; rheumatism; both acute and chronic; spitting of blood; diarrhoea, dysentery and colics; syncope, apolexy and paralysis, dyspepsia; hypochondriasis, epilepsy, hooping cough, Palpitation of the heart; ulcers and sores of every description; hysteries, weak nerves, and low spirits, suppression, and other delicate Female Complaints.

No other medicines ever discovered has grappled these horrid forms of disease with such general success. They derive thus powerfully THE EMPLOYMENT OF NATURAL MEANS TO COUNTERACT THE EVILS OF NATURE. The bowels of the earth have not been ransacked for poisonous minerals to infect the system under the pretence of eradicating disease. The Field and the Forrest alone have been searched for materials for the healing art. From these have been collected remedies attacking the various forms of disease, and expelling it by the outlets provided by the author of our Being—the Lungs, the Skin, the Kidneys and the Bowels. Hence Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, based upon the curative mode suggested by nature, are Sudorific, Diuretic, Expectorant and Purgative.

The ORIGIN of this invaluable medicine entitles it to unlimited confidence and respect. The nearer we approach to nature, in our researches after truth both in science and art, the more complete will be our success in both. Look at the uniform physical condition of the Indian Tribes of this continent, whether exposed to the frosts and storms of the North, or to the rain, heat, and pestilential miasma of Southern climate. Houseless, unprotected, exposed to every atmospheric change, every extreme of the seasons, dwelling at times in morasses and by the margins of unhealthy pools and swamps—they yet enjoy an almost total immunity from disease, while the white man, who enjoys all the comforts of civilization, with its attendant arts, is as much inferior to the savage in physical vigor, as he is superior to him in intellectual acquisitions.—How does this happen? Simply because, bereft of the light of science, he relies upon that divine instinct which impels him to select from the produce of the field and forest those remedies which Nature and Nature's God has bounteously provided for the solace of suffering, and the mitigation and cure of disease—sowing them broadcast on every hill and valley. Let those who impiously arraign the good justice of Divine Providence, and point with a sneer to the multitude of invalids who lie groaning upon beds of sickness, turn from the false lights of man, and study the secrets of nature, and they will adore that mercy which has so bountifully provided a cure for every wound—a remedy for all who seek one.

Disease rarely assumes one form from another, even in any one case—hence the absurdity of attacking it by one uncompounded medicine. But Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills combining a remedy for every form of disease, attacks successfully any combination of malady. This union of powers render these pills thoroughly cleansing in their nature and operations. They cannot fail of affording relief if taken according to directions accompanying them. They may be freely resorted to in the most desperate cases of the most desperate diseases, and they have effected remarkable and marvellous cures. They are applicable to a wide range of diseases and their use is not confined to any particular age, or to either sex. They are now triumphantly established beyond the reach of cavil and the only danger that exists is on the part of the public, lest they should suffer from imitations, spurious Pills, palmed off by the help of titles similar to that of the genuine Pills. Therefore, we once more caution the public against purchasing any but the

GENUINE

"WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS."

These Pills, as we before remarked, operate by purgation—by thoroughly cleansing the entire system from all impurities, and making the invalid, in the homely but expressive phrase, 'a new man'; whether the disease is INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, which insidiously attacks the Lungs, producing that dry, hacking cough so painful to the friendly ear, or Cutaneous, showing itself upon the skin in eruptions or blotches; whether the kidneys or the Bowels be affected—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are equally efficacious in warding off danger. Their expectorant, cathartic, sudorific and diuretic qualities enable them to take hold of each form of disease.

The perfect safety of the medicine is another all important quality, and one which has contributed more than any thing else to its extension and popularity.

In a word, this medicine commends itself strongly to the patronage of the public, and its use bids fair to become, before long, ALMOST UNIVERSAL.

SAND'S SARSAPARILLA.

FOR the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, or habit of the system:

Scrofula, or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples, or Pustles on the Face, Blotches, Biles, Chronic Sore Eyes Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Sciatica, or Lumbago, and Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Ascites, or Dropsy, Exposure or Imprudence in Life. Also, Chronic Constitutional Disorders will be removed by this Preparation.

If there be a pleasure on earth which superior beings cannot enjoy, and one which they might almost envy men the possession of, it is the power of relieving pain. How consoling then is the consciousness of having been the instrument of restoring thousands from misery, to those who possess it. What an amount of suffering has been relieved, and what a still greater amount of suffering can be prevented by the use of Sand's Sarsaparilla! The unfortunate victim of hereditary disease, with swollen glands, contracted sinews, and bones half carious, has been restored to health and vigor. The Scrofulous patient, covered with ulcers, loathsome to himself and to his attendants, has been made whole. Hundreds of persons, who had groaned hopelessly for years under cutaneous and glandular disorders, chronic rheumatism, and many other complaints springing from a derangement of the secretive organs, and the circulation, have been raised as it were from the rack of disease, and now, with regenerated constitutions, gladly testify to the efficacy of this inestimable preparation.

Copy of a letter received from Mrs Asenath M. Phillips of Norwich, Conn. after she had been using the medicine about eight days. Comment on such evidence is unnecessary. NORWICH, Oct. 8, 1842.

Messrs. Sands: Gentlemen, It is with the greatest pleasure, and a heart overflowing with gratitude, I sit down to address you, to inform you of my health, which is rapidly improving every day. Those tormenting pains in my limbs, which have followed me for nineteen years and six months, which were taking my life by inches, tortured and racked to that degree I could not sleep any more than a person wrapped in embers, or with some living creature biting the flesh. Not one single night have I slept all night during the whole of that time, until wonderful to tell, on the 26th of October, I went to bed at 10 o'clock, and slept sweet sleep till morning, and have continued to ever since, which is five nights, the best sleep which I ever enjoyed in my life. The sores on my limbs are growing smaller, and on one side there appears to be new flesh growing. The water is going off by degrees from my head to my feet. It is about two days since it reached my feet, so as to leave wrinkles on my skin. Nothing ever before reached my case until I tried your Sarsaparilla. If I continue to take it until the water is all removed from my feet and ankles, I will get well. I want you to send me some more by the next boat, by Mr Willcox. Can I find words to tell you how much I am indebted to you? No, I cannot. When physicians failed to help, and friends gave me up to die, it seemed that the Lord put it into the heart of strangers to find out a remedy and send it to me before the lamp went out. The scripture saith, "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord, and that which he hath given will pay him again."

I must close my letter by subscribing myself your friend. ASENATH M. PHILLIPS.

TRUE WISDOM.

A WISE general on the eve of battle makes a proper disposition of his forces beforehand, and does not wait till the enemy has made an attack, and thus, by forethought and due preparation, reasonably expects a victory; thus he who has a desire to attain a healthy and consequently happy old age, does not indolently wait for the attack of the enemy, which is sickness, but is constantly on his guard against his insiduous approaches, by paying proper attention to the state of his health. Many would fain occasionally use medicine to assist nature in her operation, but like a mariner at sea without his compass, knowing not where to steer, they first try this and then that, and meet with nothing but disappointment; to these, how welcome must be the important fact, that Parr's Life Pills are now proved to be all that are required to conquer disease and prolong life.

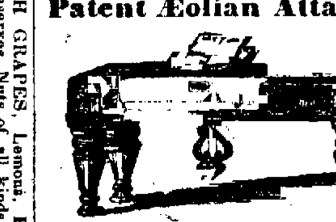
Patent Æolian Attachment.



SHAW & MERRILL,

NO. 66, MAIN STREET, BANGOR. Agents for the sale of T. Gilbert & Co's. PIANO FORTES.

MESSRS. T. G. & CO. are surpassed by none, for the excellence of their instruments, both as regards durability and richness of tone. They have purchased the patent right for manufacturing and applying Coleman's Æolian Attachment, by means of which the capabilities of the Piano are greatly enlarged. By means of a bellows and sympathetic reeds the instrument is made to combine the additional powers of the Organ. This Attachment can be easily applied to any common Piano at an expense of one hundred dollars. This compound instrument has a great variety of powers. By the use of a stop it becomes an Æolian Harp, by another a Piano Forte, and by another a simple seraphine, and by the Forte pedal a full toned organ. This valuable improvement has been greatly admired by the most eminent musical Professors of the city of Boston. All who wish to purchase a first rate instrument with or without the Attachment at the manufacturer's lowest prices, (for cash or lumber,) can be supplied on application to S. & M.

For a Professional opinion of Gilbert's Piano Fortes, we have the pleasure to refer to Mr. T. BISSEL, Organist and Professor of Music in this city, and also to Miss Converse who has one of the Æolian Piano Fortes.

The whole number of Paupers admitted to the Alms House during the past year, is 48 of whom 42 were Americans, and 6 were Irish. The whole number of deaths is 3. The whole number of days residence of Paupers is 6520, being an increase from last year of 488 days, averaging about 18 persons per day. For residence and other particulars, reference may be had to the Schedule marked C, accompanying this Report.

The whole number of persons sentenced to the House of Correction during the past year, is 31—of whom 25 were males, and 6 females, classified, as regards nationality, as follows:—Americans 18, Irish 9, Aborigines 2, English 1, Provincial 1, = 31. For further particulars in relation to the above-mentioned convicts, reference may be had to the accompanying Schedule marked B.

Mr. John McLaughlin, the former Superintendant, did not wish to be retained longer as such, and we have employed Mr. Timothy H. Morse with his wife, at a salary of three hundred dollars per annum, and we deem it proper here to state that Mr. Morse and his wife have given their undivided attention to the faithful discharge of their duties, looking well to the comfort of those entrusted to their care, and have fully met our expectations.

Doctor Charles Snell, the City Physician, has discharged his duties to our entire satisfaction, and has paid every attention necessary to the unfortunate sick among our poor, both in and out of the Alms House.

We have not materially changed the system adopted by the Overseers of the two previous years, and the result is proof, in our opinion, that that system should be continued, both for the comfort and happiness of the unfortunate poor, and the interest of the City.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Piracy—Brig Hannah.

The ship Houque, arrived at New York from Canton, brings accounts of an attack of pirates, between Macao and Whampoa, on the brig Hannah, Capt Cheever, of this port. We have been favored with the following letter from the captain of the Hannah, giving an account of the attack and robbery, to a gentleman in this city:

MACAO, 4th Dec. 1844.

Dear , I arrived at this place on the night of the 26th ult, in six days from Manila, and on the morning of the 28th got under weigh for Whampoa, and at half past 7 the same evening was abreast of Lintin, north sands, wind easterly, misty and dark. Having caught cold during the day, I had laid down in my berth telling the mate (if I fell asleep) to call me at first sight of the land about the Bogue.

I had been below perhaps ten minutes, when I heard the mate cry out, 'Hard up,' the second mate at the same time exclaiming 'we shall just clear her, and nothing more.' I ran upon deck, and found ourselves side by side with a large craft precisely like a warjunk, on our starboard beam, and before I could reach the weather rail, a fire-ball was thrown, which struck me on the breast and fell upon deck. Several more were then thrown, and then a stench pot, and the junk neared us. I instantly ordered all hands aft, and sent two of them below to get up the swivel, which was already loaded, and set two to putting the fire out. Two pistols and a couple of muskets were discharged immediately into the junk, which now fell astern of us. The breeze had been very light at E. N. E., but was increasing, and we soon had the pirate a pistol shot on the quarter. Our swivel was now up, but as is usual in such cases, would not go off. The charge was blown out of it after a while, by putting a coal of fire into the muzzle, and we opened a fire upon him from it, loaded with musket and pistol balls, for we had no round shot. The pirate returned our fire from carriage guns and swivels, firing round and canister.—The latter came on board in all directions but the round shot passed over our heads. The singing of the shot alarmed my Manila men a little, but I quieted them by telling them that the Chinese powder could not kill.

The breeze had increased so that we were now going 5 1-2 to 6 knots full and by, and the pirate, in spite of his oars which he plied vigorously, fell astern out of musket shot. We were expecting every moment to come up with an English brig, an opium trader, which was just ahead of us, and which we had been gaining upon all day. But our hopes and suspense were soon ended. The breeze failed altogether, and the junk gained rapidly upon us. When she was within pistol shot a puff of wind headed us off, and I thought she would board us to leeward.—The swivel was then taken over the larboard rail, but the wind catching us aback and casting the vessel's head to starboard, I ordered them to leave the swivel and lay aft to the small arms, which were all loaded upon the trunk. They consisted of four muskets, three pair of pistols, and a small brass blunderbuss. The pirates all the time came steadily on, and as we being flat aback made a stern board, we soon came in contact, the junk's bow coming into the brig's stern. Two muskets and a blunderbuss were discharged into them, and immediately passed below, but he fixed his grappling hooks and [illegible] a perfect shower of fire, which burnt our clothes and blinded us so that from that time forward I lost all sight of my men, save the second mate, who was in the cabin loading the muskets as they should be discharged and handed down to him. I had ordered my men to reserve their fire until the last minute, and they now poured it in as the pirates were coming over the side. I heard the discharges, but could see no one. This fire checked them for a minute, but a fresh shower of fire-balls, followed by a perfect storm of missiles, such as billets of wood and iron bolts, &c hailed down upon us, while the pirates, safe behind their high bulwarks, swept our decks to the furthest rail with their long lances.

Despairing of saving the brig, I clubbed a musket which I had just discharged, and getting in between their spears, attempted to reach their heads, but they were too high above me. I then got hold of one of their pikes, and nearly wrenched it from the man that held it, but it was so long that he soon got it again, and they shortened their pikes all around to thrust at me. I retreated to the cabin, where I found the second mate coming up with a musket. I asked him if it was loaded, and he said 'yes, with three balls.' I took it from him and got over to the side, their spears grazing me all over, at least three between my legs, and fired it at the only one that had fairly exposed himself to my sight. He uttered a piercing yell, which all the survivors, even those in the water heard, and I could hear his lance drop, but a fire ball burst in my face just then, an iron bolt struck me on the shoulder, and I fell at the companion door. I was up in a second and got into the cabin, carrying the musket with me. I here found the second mate priming a musket, and supposing that he had loaded it, took it from him and was rushing on deck, taking hold of their pike staffs to help me up, for they were thrusting them down the companion. The second mate stopped me, telling me that it was not loaded. I then threw it down upon the floor, and said to him, 'Mr Brown, I am afraid all is lost—we are alone and without arms.' Spying the larboard bread room open I called to him to follow me, and we both got in and drew the cover to as well as we could. The pirates were then coming down the companion, in at the side windows, and down the skylight. We had hardly pulled the cover to when I heard them tramping upon the trunk and a fire ball was thrown into the cabin; another and a third followed. The second mate said to me 'they are stifling us, but I told him that they only wanted to light the cabin to see if any of us were below. Several of the pirates now descended, and an indiscriminate pillage commenced, which lasted about half an hour. They took every thing which I owned except two or three loose articles of dress, and all the contents of the cabin which were of any value, the ship's papers and letter bag among the rest. They cut up the carpets, and searched the run but found nothing.

* * * * They left us so quietly that I did not know that they were gone, when two persons descended into the cabin, talking in a strange tongue, which I first thought to be Chinese, but soon recognised as the Tagalo dialect of my Manila men. I then emerged from the hole and spoke to them; they would not at first believe their senses, but came forward and fell on me. Their joy at discovering that I was alive knew no bounds. The poor fellows were without clothing, and I had none to give them, but we covered them as well as we could. I went on deck where I found two men who had just got on board from alongside. I then hailed for more and finding the fore hatch off, called upon the crew by name, beginning with the mate.—The pilot at last came crawling from the mast head to which he had climbed at the beginning of the affray. Looking about me I found the small boat gone—the anchor down in three fathoms of water and ten fathoms of chain out. The main boom topping lift was cut away, main tack and clew, and the halyards and braces fore and aft hacked to pieces. I supposed that this was done preparatory to another visit in which they could rob us more at their leisure and therefore made every exertion to get away from them. The tide was running up strong, and the wind was so light from the N. that the brig was tide-rode.—The pilot wanted me to leave the brig in the long boat, but this I looked upon as the last resort.

We hove the anchor up with great difficulty and found that we could not stem the tide. We then repaired our halyards and braces, and rove new ones for the mainsail. The tide was so strong that we remained in the same place for I should think two hours, (we had no watches left.) The wind then increased and veered to the N. E., and we made all sail for Macao, where we anchored under the stern of the Brandywine at daylight. I hailed the frigate for assistance and she sent two boats. We then got under way again and run into the Taypa. I went on shore, sent three Chinese boats up to look for the missing men, and noted a protest.

On the 1st of December, in the morning, my small boat came to Macao, bringing an American seaman and two Manila men. The American, Charles, informed me that the mate, Jeremiah Murphy, of Maine, and himself threw the small boat overboard from the long boat, and that she capsized and filled. Two Manila men then swam to her, and they all endeavored, but ineffectually, to right her. The pirate attempted to grapple the boat as they were leaving in her, and cruised for her in the dark, hearing their voices. He sailed away from them soon, however, and the mate and Benjamin Gray left the boat to swim to the brig. The boy Benjamin soon returned, saying that he could swim no further, but the mate kept on. He was wounded in the leg by a lance, and I am afraid was drowned. Jeremiah Murphy and Benjamin Gray sank soon after and drowned alongside the boat. One of the Manila men succeeded after a while in ripping up the stern sheets, with which he bailed and freed her. They then got in, and paddling with the thwarts and stern sheets, made for Macao.—They fell in with a fishing boat, the crew of which supplied them with food and gave them clothes to put on while theirs were being dried.

The cabin boy (Manilla,) who saved himself by holding on the rudder, tells me that the cook threw over a chest which we used for a boatswains locker, and got upon it, but that when he passed him in the water, the pirates were thrusting at him with their lances. I am afraid he perished. His name was Charles C. Robinson, and I believe he belonged to Providence, Rhode Island.

[illegible] of the Manila men [illegible] into the cabin when the pirates left, told me that he thought they meant to carry us all off for slaves and that while the pirates were rifling the brig, he crawled up into the junk and seated himself on her deck under the bulwarks, where he began to bewail his fate. After they had returned on board they came to him, and without doing him any harm, threw him over the side upon our deck. He says that the pirate mounted four carriage guns, and that near where he sat two of the pirates were dead, and at a short distance two more were rolling about, uttering groans.

The pilot says that they were very anxious to find me, as they wished to be revenged. That they had lost several men, he thinks they said ten. Their malice seems always to be directed against white men and negroes; Lascars and Manila men being generally spared.

The missing men of whom we shall probably hear nothing more, are, Henry Holbrook, of Mass., mate; Jeremiah Murphy Me., seaman, and Benyamin Gray, Salem, Mass., seaman, drowned Chas C. Robinson, cook, and Mariano, Manila, seaman, uncertain.

All that happened about the boat was unknown to me until after the arrival at Macao, as we could see nothing of her in the dark. Once we heard voices but upon listening came to the conclusion that they were Chinese fishing boats. My men could give a pretty clear narrative of what took place forward of the mainmast, while they could know nothing of my fate, as the quarter deck blazed like a volcano with fire-balls.

Upon turning in that evening, I had drawn on a pair of thick woolen sea stockings, which being wet, saved my feet. My shirt however took fire repeatedly. The nature of these fire-balls is not generally known even here, where they are so much talked about. They are thin bags, about the size of a 32 pound shot, filled with powder, sulphur, and some combustible which gives to their light an intensity which the eye cannot bear, while sparks fly from them to a considerable distance, setting clothes on fire, and rendering it impossible for the attacked to act in concert or hear orders. The stench pot is made of earthen ware, thrown with a fuse like the fire balls, and bursts as soon as it touches the deck, scattering something like blazing pitch, while the smoke from it hinders you from opening your mouth to give an order. Several fell upon the quarter deck at the moment of grappling. The deck was very wet from rain and that alone saved it from being burnt through.

Yours, &c.

Commodore Parker being at Macao, at the time, very promptly fitted out an expedition to cruise after the pirates. The Boxer, with one lieut. and one midshipman, ten marines, and some volunteers, armed with two 4 pounders and two 6 pounders and plenty of muskets, proceeded in search of the rascals, but returned after an unsuccessful cruise. The Chinese seas were said to be much infested with pirates.

STRANGE. The Whig of Tuesday contains the following:—

"JOSEPH BRYANT, Esq., a sound Whig and opposed to granting licenses, except for special purposes, was elected by a majority of two hundred and five votes over all others. Bradford Harlow, Esq., was run as the opposing candidate to Mr Bryant, but undoubtedly without his consent, as he was at Augusta.

What induces the editor of the Whig to labor to give the impression that Mr Bryant was elected as a whig, we cannot precisely determine. He well knows that this is not the fact, for he used great exertions in his Ward, as we are informed, to procure the election of Mr Harlow, who is a Whig. We should be sorry to believe that he is actuated by any dishonest motive, but appearances are against him. Will he explain?
Bangor Gazette.

The above we copy from the Bangor Gazette of Saturday and we are disposed to 'explain'.—We remark that our language, as quoted by the Gazette, does not necessarily lead to the conclusion that Mr Bryant was elected as a Whig, that is, exclusively as a Whig, because we added the other qualification. It was the combined character of Whig and opposition to licenses that secured his election. The editor of the Gazette with all his caution of criticism, may not entirely escape the charge of endeavoring to represent by implication, that Mr Bryant is not a Whig.—Mark his reference to Mr Harlow as a Whig.

But let that pass, and we will proceed to his pretended facts that the Editor of the Whig used great exertions to procure the election of Mr Harlow. This is false. We used no such exertions. We distributed no votes nor procured any to be distributed. Mr Harlow is a man we highly respect. He is a personal friend we honor. He is a Whig in whom we have confidence. But we did not even vote for him, but on the contrary voted for Mr. Bryant. Mr Harlow had told us that he could have nothing to do with the office of Mayor—that he did not wish his name used as a candidate and preferred to be entirely free from the whole matter. Besides this, we saw that a vote for Mr Bryant would be considered by many as a vote against indiscriminate licensing to sell liquor—we knew also that he was a sound Whig and for these reasons we voted for him and desired his election.

We have descended to particulars regarding this matter because we discover in the conductors of the Gazette a determination, without a very nice regard to means, to place us in the wrong if possible, and we have a mind to make the task so difficult that they shall expose themselves.

But the editor of the Gazette states that he was 'informed' that our course was as represented.—In order to ascertain who gave the information we addressed a note to John E. Godfrey Esq the editor, requesting the name of his informant. We received a line in answer, by the hand of Joel Hills Esq. who seemed to appear as the person who gave the information to Mr Godfrey. Mr Hills stated that he told Mr G. that he thought he saw us distribute votes, but that the article in the Gazette was stronger than his language would authorize and he would not assume its responsibility. Mr. Godfrey states that Mr Hills language did fully authorize his remarks and refers to Mr Johnson for proof of it. He regrets that the article appeared in the Gazette and says it shall be made right in the next number.

Our opinion of this matter is, that Mr Hills and other leaders of the 'Liberty' party, when they get together and engage in conversation about political matters, cherish so deep a hatred towards the Whigs, that, if not rendered incapable of representing them truly, they so magnify and distort even common matters of fact, that their conversations are unfit to be reported in any form, much less to be printed. We regret exceedingly that we should have been forced to this conclusion, but so it is.

French Language and Book Keeping.

Mr Hoyt, an accomplished teacher of the French language has arrived in this city, and proposes to teach the French language, orally.—He will also teach Book Keeping upon a new system combining the essential benefits of double entry with the main forms of single entry.

Mr. Hoyt comes to our city bearing with him the highest testimonials of qualifications as a successful teacher in the French language, and in an elegant and effective system of Book Keeping. Many of our citizens are interested in these objects, and we feel fully authorized to assure them that in committing themselves to the instructions of Mr. Hoyt they will not be disappointed in the result. His notices, at length, may be found in our advertising columns.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

I wish to state through your paper to the public that certain persons are circulating false reports, and which I have reason to believe they know are false, that I am concerned as a partner with Stephen Walker in selling liquor. The office I hold is desired by others, I wish them to obtain it by other means than circulating false reports about me. I am in no way connected in the business affairs of Stephen Walker, nor am I now interested, nor have I been interested in any other business than that of Constable, since October 1841. Heaven knows that I have seen evil enough from liquor, never to be concerned either in selling or drinking it.

SIMON F. WALKER.

Bangor, March 18, 1845.

Affairs at Frankfort.

We have received the proceedings of a public meeting at Frankfort, held during a season of uncommon excitement, a few days since, on account of the violation of a grave in that vicinity, and other matters in some way connected with that affair. We are disposed to be liberal in the publication of matters of general interest, and to discountenance all violations of law, and the rights of social life. We must however, in all these matters regard the welfare of the whole community and keep ourselves clearly within the law.

We do not feel at liberty to publish the proceedings in their present form, and mainly for the reason that the expression of opinion in them is greater than that of the relation of fact, whereas the facts should be much stronger than the words. We can see plainly enough that the resolutions were drawn under much excitement, and are calculated to increase excitement rather than lead to sober and earnest measures to bring wrong doers to answer to the law of the land.

The robbing of a grave and the exposure of the subject to the public gaze, are calculated to excite almost any community, and when the subject is a female the atrocity of the crime seems to be greatly enhanced. So far as an emphatic disapprobation of such acts is desired we willingly lend our sanction and concurrence, differing only in this instance as to the form of expression.

During the absence of the editor from the office there was some encouragement given that the proceedings alluded to would be published but it is hoped the reasons given will be satisfactory for their not appearing.

Celebration of St. Patrick's Day by the Bangor Catholic Total Abstinence Society.

The Bangor Catholic Total Abstinence Society celebrated St. Patrick's day in this city by a procession, accompanied by a band of music, suitable Religious services at the Catholic chapel and a public dinner.

The dinner was provided by Mr. Kimball of the Mansion House, and in a style of great elegance and with prodigal liberality in all good things in the way of 'creature comforts.'

The Society numbered some sixty fine looking men. Among the invited guests were the Mayor of the city, Rev Mr. Caverno, President of the Washingtonian Total abstinence Society, several Editors and others.

After partaking of the feast the President of the Society Mr. Michael Boyce, called upon the Toast Master Patrick Fox for his report, which was responded to by the announcement of the following.

REGULAR TOASTS.

The day we Celebrate—A day christianity triumphed over paganism; may we live to see the redemption of our native land from the galling yoke of British tyranny.—Tune, St. Patrick's day.

The President of the United States—That illustrious statesman; may the administration of the law is the purity of its principles be perpetuated over this extensive and happy country—Tune—Yankee Doodle.

Daniel O'Connell, the Champion of Freedom—May his triumphant victory for the Legislative Independence of his oppressed country be soon consummated, and with enthusiasm be announced to the nations of the earth.—Tune—The Sprig of Shilala.

Father Mathew—The splendid champion of Erin's Redemption, merits the approbation, love and gratitude of his country, the admiration of the world and the blessing of the Most High.—Tune, Garieone.

The Banner of Temperance—May it float with all manner of prosperity—May it never be retarded in its progress, but with the velocity of lightning pass through the earth and elevate the degraded condition of man.—Tune, Green Flag Flying.

The Land of our Adoption—Unity, loyalty and liberty to the free sons and noble institutions of the American Republic—Tune, Columbia.

Peel and the British Ministry—May their tyrannical laws, their most infamous government, their foul and slanderous institutions be totally abolished and forever buried in oblivion.—Tune, Royal Charley.

The land of our birth—May the true land of Erin the noble and brave, be cautious and steady and have the repeal, to gain independence, I hope they shall [illegible] and break the strong fetters that binds Granue Wail—Tune, Rory O More.

Tree of Temperance—May its branches cover the earth, be watered by the dew of heaven, and supported by the true principles of teetotalism.—Tune, There is no luck about the House.

Happy tidings—As the dove returning to the Ark with the olive leaf which indicated that the mighty waters of the deep had subsided—may the same news reach our land that King Alcohol is no more, that monster of death and terror that has swept thousands to a premature grave.—Tune, Farewell to Whiskey.

The Rev. Mr. O Sullivan—His indefatigable labor in the cause of temperance—may it be attended with all manner of prosperity and crowned with success.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Higgins—The Sentinel and Shepherd of his flock, a most sterling patriot and defender of the faith—may the bloom of his cheek never be tinged by political hatred or religious animosity.—Tune, Sweet Home.

Justice, judgment and equality—may the Shamrock flourish over old Erin as the Eagle did over America.

Woman, her fame and character, fortitude, resignation, meekness, and love, none but a God could form so fair a being, none but a God could bless us with one so sensitive and beautiful and true, as lovely and devoted woman.

Letters were read from Rev. John West, Rev Mr Nye, and Thos A. Hill, Esq. The following is the letter of Mr Hill.

Bangor March 15th 1845.

[illegible] It is with sincere regret that I [illegible] would be very grateful to my feelings on account of its tendency to harmonize and bring into a closer union all the different means and forms by which the great and good cause of Temperance is to be promoted. It would remind us that though of different nations, sects and parties we, as temperance men, have but one and the same great object in view. An object hallowed by the unexampled zeal, energy and success of your own Father Matthew, and by the untiring and self-sacrificing efforts of the Goughs of this country.

Accept, Gentlemen, my assurances of high regard for your benevolent Society, and much respect for yourselves individually, and believe me Your friend and Obedient Servant.

THOMAS A HILL.

The President Mr. Boyce, made a neat address to the Society, introducing to them generally, the invited guests present on occasion. He then proceeded to call upon the guests for speeches and sentiments.

Rev. Mr. Caverno addressed the meeting in a speech of great beauty and glowing with appropriate classical allusions and as a sentiment, gave;

Cold Water. 'Conquer by this.'

By John S Sayward—
The Memory of Ireland. May the last among the brilliant and heart stirring associations connected with the green isle, be that of the complete triumph of Teetotalism.

When the efforts of Father Mathew shall thoroughly purify the habits of the people from the annoyance of intoxication, he will well deserve to be remembered in connection with St. Patrick in his successes in purifying the land from noxious reptiles, St. Patrick and Father Mathew will, by association, reflect double honor on good old Ireland.

By John E. Godfrey Esq.—
The Temperance Irish American—as true an American as lives.

By Capt. Benjamin Swett—
King Alcohol. Having waded to the throne in blood, may he leave it with the loss of his own.

William Bartlett, Esq being called upon, said that he was not in the habit of making speeches, and should not attempt it on the present occasion, but he had prepared two sentiments which he would read and the company might take their choice.

By William Bartlett, Esq.—
Union and Temperance: When temperance men forget creeds and dogmas—country and prejudices—party feeling and personal piques—the reign of temperance, Catholic and universal, will have begun.

The union of Irishmen and Yankees in the cause of Temperance: battling with the hydra-headed demon of Intemperance, with union and a good cause, every rum fortress is destined to capitulate; they are invincible.

By Charles A Stackpole Esq—
Licensing the "respectable" Rumseller—an obsolete idea.

By W. H. Johnson—
The Irish heart and the Irish hand: While oppression has never been able to chill the one, poverty has never succeeded in closing the other.

By Dennis Lowe
The Mayor of Bangor: His reputation as an upright merchant, is a pledge that as Chief Magistrate he will be faithful and impartial in the discharge of his official duties. We honor him as a man, and as a true friend of temperance.

By the Marshal of the day—
I have stuck to temperance a good while, and I mean to stick to it till I die.

By
Our Host and Hostess: May their excellent house continue to be thronged, as it now is, with temperance people.

By John O'Connell—
Here's to the Sons of Erin, not forgetting our American Natives; here is once more to the Extricator, I mean brave Dan, the Liberator.

By Daniel Gallagher—
The Shamrock and the Hickory: May the former flourish in safety under the shade of the latter.

By James Murphy—
The chain is broke—the Sampson yoke
From off our necks is taken;
Ireland awoke—Dungannon spoke—
With fear was England shaken.

By Timothy Sullivan—
May the Rose of England wither and die,
And Erin's Shamrock be raised on high,
May Hibernia's harp proclaim the strains
Of Liberty over her verdant plains;
And as Father Matthew has healed our woe,
So may O Connell strike the blow
For Freedom's cause, the union repeal,
And thus bless Erin with power and weal.

By Patrick Giffin—
May the wings of Temperance never lose a feather.

By John Shedre—
Civil and religious liberty to the people of every clime and of every color.

By Dennis O'Loughlen—
Sons of Hibernia, arouse; rally for Ireland and repeal. Prepare to lay low the proud of England; prepare for the coming struggle, and when the law of nations shall render it justifiable on your part to face the enemies of your native country, be firm, united and determined; and above all take care to strike a decisive blow, which will involve them in one undistinguishable mass of ruin, desolation and destruction.

By Patrick Collins—
The revival of shamrock on the American Soil: May the lovers of freedom bedew it with their tears, and warm it with their smiles.

By James O'Donohue, Marshal of the day—
Irishmen, be firm and be united as one man Bear and forbear towards each other. Merge all minor differences and rally for Ireland; union is strength. Hurra for repeal!

By Malachi M. McCorbitt—
The memory of Thomas Jefferson, the friend of the emigrant: "And shall we," said he, "refuse the unhappy fugitive from distress that hospitality which the savages of the desert extended to our fathers on arriving on this land? Shall oppressed humanity find no asylum on this globe?"

By P. Fox—
Sons of Ireland, the day is not far distant when the land of our birth will be as it was—great, glorious and free; have Daniel O'Connell the leader of Ireland, leading and encouraging the brave Repealers and the '82 Club.

By Patrick Heffron—
The American Eagle, that bird of Jove. As it soars on in its heaven-bound course, extending with one limb the olive branch of peace to all nations, may it kindly grasp the shamrock with the other.

By Edward Heffron—
To the memory of the man that first spoke of Independence and took up his sword and maintained it, and never gave up till he had equal rights.

By Edward Mehegan—
Let Britain boast her motley flag;
We'll lift the green more proud and airy;
Be mine the lot to bear that flag,
And hail the hour of Tipperary.

By Thomas Wall—
Here's to the stars and stripes, and to the Eagle flying, and to this happy mansion where we have dined.

By Daniel Gallaghen—
The National Independence of Ireland: Without bloodshed if possible, if not the sooner, the later, for when Daniel strikes the blow the 'Union' is undone.

By Michael O'Connell—
Here's a health to President Polk; may he aid and protect those that come to the land of the free and the brave, from under the British yoke.

By James Murphy—
Let us lift the green flag high
Underneath this foreign sky;
And as we hasten to the fight
Let us drink a last good night.

St. Patrick's Day.

The Independent Catholic Benevolent Society of Bangor met according to previous notice at the Washingtonian Hall on Hammond street, At 9 o'clock a Procession was formed under the direction of John O'Sullivan Chief Marshal of the day and took up their line of march, preceded by a band of music, through the principal streets, with banners flying, etc. after which they proceeded to the Catholic Church, where an Address was delivered by Rev. Mr O'Sullivan, and other exercises had appropriate for the occasion. The procession was then reformed and proceeded to the Franklin House where an entertainment was provided in good style by Messrs Young & Record. DANIEL FITZPATRICK, was chosen President, JAMES LANDERS Vice President, Michael McCarthy Sec'y Timothy Wall Toastmaster. After the cloth was removed the following Toasts were drank in "pure cold water" and the company separated much pleased with the exercises of the day.

Toasts.

By Danl. Fitzpatrick—
The Irish Harp and the American Eagle, the one beloved by every true hearted Irishman the other by every true hearted American, they were placed together upon the Flag, which has proudly floated in the breeze this day, in peace and will be sustained in war, by those who carried them to be there, against the rude blasts of tyranny.

By John O'Sullivan—
Ireland and America, may they be united upon all those great moral and political questions which shall have a tendency to elevate and strengthen the morals of the whole human family.

By Jeremiah Crowley—
The true test of a liberal minded man, one who attempts to elevate the oppressed without regard to locality or place.

By Wm Smith—
Irishmen, Here is to the Sons of freedom and liberty and may the Sons of Erin soon conquer their enemy.

By Michael Landers—
A sporting Irishman always at home in good company and at the festive board and especially amongst the Ladies.

By Thomas O'Leary—
The Flag of America may its stripes remain untarnished its honor ever pure.

By Patrick Shine—
All ye subjects of Great Britain
Who are Loyal to the Queen
May you all be swept away
By some torrent from a Stream.

By Michael McCarty—
The great O'Connell, the terror of tyranny, the pride of Ireland and the Catholic champion of universal Freedom. May heaven crown his Labors.

James Landers—
St. Patrick's day, a memorable day with Irishmen, comparatively, a yankee Fourth of July a glorious day of Liberty.

By John O'Brine—
Our guests who have honored us with their company; never let us forget, the kindness and friendly countenance their presence manifests—may they feel the joy they give.

By Thos. O Larey—
Ireland—may her misfortunes soon prove the pedestal of her national Independence and the music of her harp be heard where the voice of the Lion now carries the sway.

By Patrick O'Hearn—
Citizens of the United States are the freest people in the world their hospitality allows us the enjoyment of equal rights with themselves thereby strengthing themselves and sharing it with others.

By Timothy Wall—
The Independent Catholic Benevolent Society got up for a good cause, if wrong, will sure be righted, like a ship on her beam ends, may we never be obliged to cut away her masts.

Timothy Wall—
Woman mighty woman, too powerful for any man openly to avow himself your enemy; too weak for any man to insult, and too lovely for any man to resist.

New Hampshire Election.

Returns from 187 towns give Steele (Loco) 21,489, Colby (Whig) 14,924, Hoyt (Abo.) 5271 scat. 944. On the Congress ticket, Woodbury runs far behind, and is defeated. Thirty-four towns to be heard from.

☞ The Boston Mail states that there was a disgraceful disturbance at the Temple, in that city on Sunday evening, on the occasion of the delivery of a Temperance address by Rev. Mr. Stetson of Medford. The uproar was so great that the speaker was obliged to desist.

☞ The spring elections in the interior of N. York indicate highly favorable prospects in the Whig forces. There never was more determined spirit and we have no doubt it will increase until victory is secured.

☞ Shepard Cary was feasted at Augusta by the locos on Saturday evening last. He made a speech to the yeomanry present on the occasion.

From Brazil.

The frigate Congress, Capt Voorhees, which arrived in the Chesapeake on Wednesday, brings important despatches from the Hon Henry A Wise, our Minister at Brazil, relative to the slave trade. It is stated that the most extraordinary developements, relative to this trade, has been made by Mr Wise, and also by Mr Gordon, our Consul at Rio.

THE FRENCH LANGUAGE TAUGHT ORALLY.
ROOM OVER
SMITH & FENNO'S STORE.

MR. HOYT respectfully offers his services as oral French instructor. His experience of over eleven years in teaching French orally in several Colleges, and a large number of Academies, both in New England and New York, in which he has instructed persons of every profession and pursuit, including Professors in Colleges, Divines, Physicians, Lawyers, Members of Congress, Students, Merchants, Artists, Mechanics &c &c., enables him to adapt his instructions to minds of every calibre. The instruction being entirely oral, the pupil's organs of hearing and speech are thoroughly trained to the pronunciation, the instructor setting forth principles, and impressing them firmly in the mind by constant practice, and the consequence is, that where due attention is paid to his instruction, the pupil never fails to make a rapid progress. Wherever this mode of instruction is once known, it has met the highest commendations from men whose position in society and eminent talents have qualified them to be sound judges. Among the number who have borne testimony of his skill and assiduity, either as pupils or witnesses, Mr. H. begs leave to mention the following:

Mr. H. refers to His Excellency Gov. Kent, Messrs. Appleton & Hill; H. V. Poor; A. W Paine; John S. Sayward, Esqs; Rev. Mr. Pomeroy, Bangor; John Neal, Phineas Barnes, William Willis, Charles Jones, Esqs; Rev. Mr. Chickering, Portland.

Ladies and gentlemen forming private social classes among their friends, will be waited upon at their rendezvous, without extra charge.

Pupils should apply immediately in which case Mr. H. will have ample time to ground them thoroughly in the pronunciation and grammatical construction of the language.

For further particulars please read over one of his circulars which may be had at the bookstores of Messrs Smith & Fenno D. Bugbee, E. F. Duren, or of Mr. H. at his Recitation Room, over Messrs. Smith & Fenno's Store.

BOOK-KEEPING.

MR. HOYT is the author of a NEW SYSTEM OF BOOK-KEEPING, combining advantages to the retail dealer and manufacturer not met with in any other system ever known ed. A correct STOCK, CASH, BANK, and EXPENSE account are kept, and the exact profits, &c. of the business ascertained as correctly as if their Books were kept by double entry. The trouble of a Journal is dispensed with, there being only three books, CASH, DAY BOOK and LEDGER. No merchant or trader need purchase new books in order to adopt this system. The only trouble is taking an inventory of the stock on hand, after which the books can be opened in ten minutes. So simple is the plan that a person can be taught it in from half an hour to an hour's time. It has been most liberally patronized in all the large country towns, and Manufactories in New England, and recently in Providence, where more than 40 merchants, traders and manufacturers purchased the work, and most, if not all, are now following it up in their Books. Mr H. refers to his hand bills for further details.

Double Entry Book Keeping

Mr. H. hereby gives notice that he will receive 3 or 4 young gentlemen under his care, and qualify them for situations in any counting room in the Union. They will be taught Double-entry Book Keeping, Commercial Arithmetic or short method of calculations in use in counting rooms, Exchanges, &c. and Penmanship.

Mr. H has a number of his pupils in New York and New Orleans, who are in first rate situations. As this course will occupy some time, and requires a great deal of Mr. H's attention, it is requisite that pupils should not neglect applying immediately, as only a few pupils will be received.
